

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT WELLNESS CARE PLANS

Q: WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A PET WELLNESS PLAN AND PET INSURANCE?

A: A pet wellness plan helps you plan for regular health and preventative care that keeps your pet in top shape daily. While, pet insurance helps you plan for the possibility of a large-scale, unexpected veterinary bill, like surgery or an accident.

Q: DO I NEED PET INSURANCE TO GET A WELLNESS PLAN?

A: No. However, if you are signed up with Trupanion Pet Insurance, members of our Wellness Care Programs receive a 10% discount towards the invoice to help you with your co-pay.

Q: SHOULD I CONSIDER CHOOSING BOTH A WELLNESS PLAN AND PET INSURANCE?

A: You should always consider carefully when determining whether to get one or the other, or even both. Pet wellness plans and pet insurance even each other out to cover nearly every vet visit your pet could possibly have.

Q: HOW CAN A PET WELLNESS PLAN IMPACT YOUR VETERINARY COSTS?

A: A pet wellness plan can help break up the cost of regular visits or one-time vaccinations and procedures over the course of several months. For example, instead of paying several hundred dollars for a declaw, you can include a two or four dental in your monthly plan and spread the cost out over a year.

Q: WHAT EXACTLY IS COVERED UNDER WELLNESS PLANS?

A: Pet wellness plans cover all sorts of preventative care for your cat. That means annual exams and dental cleaning, routine vaccinations and heartworm prevention, etc.
